

És tard (1993) (It's late)

A kid writes a composition titled “What did I do on Sunday”. Everything seems to happen as in a typical holiday. The morning walk in the park, the rice for lunch, the visit of his uncles and his cousin in the afternoon, the football match on the TV... Routine seems to appear in every action. But suddenly, the quiet and calm ambient disappear when his parents start a discussion that will end in a crime.
